```
+ rans = read only(u)
                                                Copy: u = v1
  values.reject do |val|
                                            Call: v2 = values.reject ran.include?val
                                                  Branch
     read_only(u).include?val
                                                 Copy: val end
                                            Call: v3 = read only(u)
Sql: SELECT * from custom fields query node
JOIN ... JOIN ... WHERE user id = ?
                                              Call:v3.include?val
                                                               data edge control edge
                                                 (b) ADG
                 Ruby code
```